DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS MARK BENSON

The University at Albany named Mark Benson as director of athletics on August 20, 2014. Benson, 46, became the University's second AD since the program entered Division I sports in 1999. As director, Benson provides leadership for UAlbany's NCAA Division I, 19-sport intercollegiate athletics program and its scholar student athletes.

In his first year, the UAlbany men's and women's athletics teams were recognized in the final Capital One Cup standings, which honors the nation's best Division I athletic programs. The Great Dane women's programs finished 49th, while the men placed 50th out of 106 ranked schools and 347 total NCAA Division I athletic programs.

UAlbany competed in a school-record six NCAA Tournaments, while winning nine conference championships, and was one of three universities in the country to have its men's basketball, women's basketball, men's lacrosse, women's lacrosse, field hockey, and women's golf teams make NCAA Division I Tournament appearances -- the others were Duke and North Carolina. With field hockey's run to the Final Four and men's lacrosse's quarterfinal appearance, the Great Danes boasted two top-10 national finishes under Benson's surveillance.

Prior to UAlbany, Benson was the senior associate athletic director at Old Dominion University. He also served as the assistant vice president for Athletic Development for eight years, and was an adjunct professor in the Sports Management Program. During his time at Old Dominion, Benson was responsible for budget preparation and administration, as well as providing sport supervision for men's and women's sailing. During Benson's tenure at Old Dominion, the Athletic Endowment grew more than $16 million and the Old Dominion Athletic Foundation annual fund grew from $400,000 to $4.1 million. Benson was responsible for soliciting seven $1 million plus gifts to athletics, as well as numerous significant commitments from donors.

Prior to his time at Old Dominion, Benson worked at Coca-Cola Enterprises, Inc. as an Educational Channel manager. In his role with Coca-Cola, he managed the Educational Channel for the Commonwealth Division, which covers sales centers from eastern Delaware to eastern North Carolina. Benson developed financial and marketing proposals as well as negotiated beverage contracts with colleges and universities within his division.

Benson and his wife Hunter are the parents of three daughters, Vandy Grace, Lydon and Hannum. He is a graduate of North Carolina State University.

HEAD COACH JOANNA BERNABEI-MCNAMEE

University at Albany Director of Athletics Mark Benson announced Friday, April 15th the hiring of Joanna Bernabei-McNamee as the 11th head women's basketball coach in program history and fourth head coach in the Great Danes' Division I era.

Bernabei-McNamee (pronounced Bern-uh-BEE Mac-Na-MEE), a native of Weirton, W.Va., comes to UAlbany after three seasons as the head coach of the University of Pikeville in Pikeville, Ky. There, McNamee racked up 63 wins and led the program to back-to-back National Tournament berths, including a program-record 26 victories and an NAIA Final Four appearance in 2016. McNamee was named the 2016 Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) NAIA Regional Coach of the Year, and was also named the 2015 Mid-South Conference Coach of the Year.

Prior to Pikeville, McNamee coached at the NCAA Division I level for 10 years. She served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Maryland for four seasons from 2003 to 2007, and helped pilot the Terrapins to the 2006 National Championship. Maryland beat Duke 78-75 in overtime for the title and finished with a record of 34-4. During her tenure, she brought in four straight nationally ranked recruiting classes, including three in the top 10.

McNamee spent two years at West Virginia University as an assistant coach where she was a scout, position coach and recruiting coordinator. Before her time as a Mountaineer, McNamee had a two-year stint at Eastern Kentucky where she was responsible for scouting, individual player development, as well as serving as the recruiting coordinator.

Coach Mac gained head coaching experience in 1998 at West Virginia Wesleyan where she compiled an 18-9 record and a third-place finish in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC), while also acting as the school's Senior Women's Administrator.

McNamee attended West Liberty State where she was a Division II All-American and a four-time first-team All-WVIAC selection as a point guard. Named the 1997 WVIAC Player of the Year, she still holds the NCAA Division II career assists record of 1,107 and the record for assists in a game with 24. She is one of only four players in NCAA history to record over 1,000 points and 1,000 assists, finishing her stellar career with 1,317 total points.

McNamee also holds NCAA records for average assists per game (9.5), and the school and conference marks for assists in a game, season (294) and career. She led her team to an 80-36 record over four years and is listed on West Liberty's Top 20 All-Time Best Athletes list. She was the first woman to be named first-team All-West Virginia Athletic Conference for four years and was inducted into the West Liberty State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Hall of Fame in 2011.

McNamee earned her bachelor's degree in exercise physiology in 1997 from West Liberty and a master's degree from Eastern Kentucky in sports administration in 1999.

Joanna and her husband Joe McNamee have two sons, Luke (9) and Caden (8). McNamee took a nearly four-year hiatus from coaching (2009-13) to focus on raising her children.

Coach Mac takes over a UAlbany program that has won a combined nine America East Conference tournament and regular season titles in the last five seasons, and has made five consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. In the 2015-16 season, UAlbany defeated No. 5 Florida for the program's first-ever Division I NCAA Tournament victory.

AJ COHEN

UAlbany women's basketball head coach Joanna Bernabei-McNamee has announced that AJ Cohen has joined the team as an assistant coach for the Great Danes.

Cohen comes to UAlbany after serving under Bernabei-McNamee at Pikeville as the graduate assistant coach for two years. He also was the assistant to video coordinator and practice player for over two years for the University of Louisville women's basketball team under head coach Jeff Walz.

Cohen served at the University of Pikeville as the graduate assistant coach from August 2014 to June 2016. Helping the Bears to the program's first-ever NAIA Fab Four in 2016, Cohen assisted with film exchange, opponent scouting, game day preparation and daily practice plans. He also served as the co-head coach of the junior varsity team.

At Louisville, Cohen served in multiple capacities as an undergraduate. He helped with opponent scouting breakdown and filming home games as the assistant to video coordinator and was a male practice player to help with scouting purposes.

Since April 2015, Cohen has served as an assistant coach of the All-Ohio Black EYBL Women's Basketball program, which has included 2015 USA U16 National Team players. He develops practice plans and helps with implementation of playing strategies.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Cohen graduated from Louisville in December of 2013 with a Bachelor's Degree of Science in marketing. He is currently working on his MBA.

TONY PEROTTI

Assistant Coach • Tennessee '99 • 1st season

Tony Perotti enters his first season as an assistant coach at UAlbany. Perotti will be coaching the Great Danes' perimeter players this season as well as serving as the program's recruiting coordinator.

In the summer of 2016 Perotti was selected to attend the WBCA's "Center for Coaching Excellence." The WBCA chooses assistant coaches throughout all three divisions to attend the prestigious workshop. The workshop is designed to create an environment for growth for assistant coaches to master their craft.

Perotti played a vital role in lifting the LSU program back to national prominence with three 20-win seasons and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances highlighted by back-to-back NCAA Sweet 16 trips.

Perotti was instrumental in the development of WNBA draftees LaSondra Barrett and Theresa Plaisance as well as free agent Shanece McKinney. Plaisance went on to continue her career professionally with the WNBA's Tulsa Shock/Dallas Wings and McKinney played in the WNBA for the New York Liberty. Plaisance was a two-time All-SEC First-Team selection and became LSU's first SEC scoring champion during her junior season since Seimone Augustus in 2006. She is one of 18 players in program history to collect 1,000 points and 500 rebounds. During Perotti's first season with the Lady Tigers in 2012-13, LSU reached its highest win total since 2008. The Lady Tigers captured 23 wins, reached the championship game of the Southeastern Conference Tournament and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament second round.

Perotti helped guide UCLA to national prominence in his three seasons, which included two NCAA Tournament appearances and a 72-26 overall record. UCLA made drastic improvements in every season. In 2008-09, the Bruins compiled a 19-12 record and finished fourth in the Pac-10 Conference. The following year, Perotti and UCLA went 25-9 overall and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to UCLA, Perotti served as an assistant coach at Northern Arizona University for four seasons from 2004-08. He was the associate head coach his last two years at NAU. He served primarily as the team's recruiting coordinator, game scouting coordinator and in the development of the perimeter players. In his four seasons at NAU, Perotti helped the Lumberjacks compile 71 victories, win the Big Sky Conference Tournament and advance to the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament. During his tenure, the Lumberjacks set school records for field goals, points scored, assists, rebounds, three-point shots made and free throw percentage. Guard Sade Cunningham set a school record for single-season and career assists.

Perotti officially joined the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant for five seasons at the University of San Francisco. He was the team's top assistant from 2000-04 and worked as the third assistant in his first season. He also served as the program's recruiting coordinator in 2000 and 2002-03.

Before his time at USF, Perotti worked as an office assistant and summer camp coach at the University of Tennessee. He also served as a practice player for two seasons with the Lady Vols. While in Knoxville, Perotti gained coaching experience in 1999 as the co-head coach of the 11-and-under AAU team Knoxville Lady Lakers. At Tennessee, he earned his bachelor's degree in 1999 in sports management with a minor in business administration.

Perotti grew up on Lone Pine Farm in Millerton, N.Y. He learned the value of a hard day's work from his father, John and grandfather, Frank and received his basketball skill from his mother, Victoria and grandmother, Doris. Perotti has three siblings, brother Stephen and sisters Terry and Kelly, and three nieces, Krissy, Cassidy and Alexis.

ELIZABETH TAPLER
